Training Program on “Sanskrit Basics for Children” Alphabet - Words - Mantras

Location: Velvom Thozhi Life Skill Centre,
Srimushnam, Cuddalore

Duration: 28 April 2025 – 08 May 2025

Introduction

Sanskrit For All (SFA), an NGO committed to preserving and promoting the ancient Sanskrit language, organized a ten-session training program titled "Sanskrit Basics for Children – Alphabet, Words, Mantras". This initiative was held at Velvom Thozhi Life Skill Centre in Srimushnam, Cuddalore, with the goal of introducing Sanskrit to young learners in an engaging and culturally rich environment.

Program Objectives

The training was designed to:

- Instill a foundational understanding of the Sanskrit language among children.
- Introduce alphabets, numbers, basic vocabulary, and mantras.
- Build confidence in oral communication through simple sentence construction.
- Connect language learning with culture through stories and spiritual concepts

Glimpses of Training

Enthusiastic students — L. Jayapriya, M. Annapoorani, M. Krishika, S. Shivani, M. Priyadarshini, B. Lakshana, S. Kirija, T. Abinesh, S. Vasanth, A. Jothi Magalingam, A. Kirthika, G. Rakshana, G. Velan, S. Vanitha, S. Vinitha — actively participated in the "Sanskrit For All" workshop. These students come from diverse economic backgrounds, with their parents engaged in various occupations such as Bank Officer, Barber, Carpenter, Daily Wage Worker, Driver, and Private Job. Despite financial constraints, the parents are supportive of their children's educational aspirations and are proud of their interest in learning Sanskrit, a classical language with deep cultural roots.

SESSIONS

- Session 1: Sanskrit alphabet
- Session 2: Focused on practical communication.
- Session 3: Introduced numbers
- Session 4: Vocabulary
- Session 5: Strengthened vocabulary
- Session 6: Action verbs
- Session 7: A comprehensive revision
- Session 8: Pronouns
- Session 9: Human body parts.
- Session 10: Vishnu Sahasranamam and Dasavataram stories

Trainer and Coordination

The sessions were led by Mrs. Ayswarya, whose teaching methods kept the children engaged and motivated. Ms. Indira coordinated the program, ensuring smooth execution and communication with participants and parents.

Student Engagement

Children actively participated in all sessions, asked questions, responded in Sanskrit, and developed confidence in the language. The interactive methodology—using visuals, storytelling, and conversation—proved highly effective.

Support and Materials

- Each child received a Sanskrit Basic Training Manual.
- Refreshments were provided every day.
- Cultural elements such as mantras and mythological stories made learning meaningful and rooted in tradition.

The “Sanskrit Basics for Children” program was a resounding success. It introduced Sanskrit to rural children in an accessible and enjoyable way. The structured syllabus, dedicated faculty, and enthusiastic learners made this a model training initiative.

We seek your kind support to expand our “Sanskrit Basics for Children” initiative, which introduces rural children to language and culture through engaging sessions. Your contribution will help provide learning materials, refreshments, and quality instruction, ensuring holistic growth and continued interest in India’s ancient language and heritage.
